

Young IMA Conference for 12th Moscow Pre-Moot for the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot

12 March 2021 | 18:30 – 21:50 Moscow Time (GMT+3) | Zoom

COVID-19 has changed the arbitration landscape once and for all demanding a quick international response. This year Conference will explore the tools we have today and are in need of tomorrow to address problematic issues arisen. In part, our distinguished speakers will touch upon the dynamic sphere of intellectual property rights, an epicenter of clash between innovation and needs of humanity.

Workshop I

Virtual hearing as an implied feature of arbitration in 2021

Session I

New rules for vaccines? CISG and its extension to licensing agreements

Session II

Scope of exclusive licenses: a right of use without third party rights or claims

Among the speakers are

Prof. Dr. Ingeborg Schwenzer

LL.M., Dean at Swiss International Law School and Professor (em.) at University of Basel, Counsel and Arbitrator

Associate Prof. Dr. Andrey Schirvindt

LL.M., Lomonosov Moscow State University

Dr. Dorothee Schramm

Partner at Sidley Austin LLP

Mag. Oliver Loksa

Counsel at Hausmaninger Kletter Rechtsanwälte-Gesellschaft m.b.H.

Nadia Smahi

Associate at Bär & Karrer

Prof. Loukas Mistelis

Queen Mary University of London

Moderators

Assistant Prof. Dr. Milena Djordjević

LL.M., Director of Center for Legal Skills at the University of Belgrade

Dr. Nadine Lederer

LL.M., Senior Associate at Hogan Lovells

Yulia Mullina

Executive Administrator of the Russian Arbitration Center

Participation is free of charge.

Should you have questions, please contact us at moscowpre moot@gmail.com.

REGISTRATION FOR THE CONFERENCE